

Fundraising for Children in Africa & Summer Volunteer Trip to Africa & Mainland China

Trip to Ghana in 2009

“Rice mixed with sand, ketchup and a piece of steak as tough as leather are all for lunch as well as dinner...dry grass spread all over outside the window, flocks of sheep and chicken stroll around without pens. It's such a primitive shape of lives that we enjoy sitting outside watching as if “Animal World” was played on TV...”
(Zhong Peila, a member of Africa Program)

Trip to Hainan, China, in Summer 2009

“She gets up early for school every day without breakfast, neither do other children here. There's neither enough food nor time to prepare. Jin Mei goes back home at noon and prepares lunch for the whole family. There's nothing complex to do with cooking except setting the fire, because only two dishes are to be cooked: rice mixed with water and boiled vegetables.”
(Huang Jingjing, a member of Hainan Program)
