Peer Sharing

To Join or Not to Join – Experience with “Jong” and Skills for Committee Members

Date: November 11, 2010 (Thursday)

Time: 16:00 – 17:00

Should I join a “jong” and become an executive committee member? Am I ready?

I worry that “jong” duties will affect my studies.

How do I solve personal conflicts with jong-mates?

Pauline Lui, a Year 3 BBA (Law) student and a former committee member of the Business and Economics Association, will share her “jong” experience with you. Ask and learn from your peer’s first hand knowledge.

Register with your full name, university number, faculty, year and phone number at cedars-learningplus@hku.hk by November 10, 2010 (Wednesday). Walk-in is welcome.

Peer Sharing is a one-hour informal session once a week on non-academic issues such as university planning, developing social network, study strategies etc.
