Request Form for Emergency Assistance (Tuition Fee Loan)

University financial assistance is means-tested. University funds are in general used to supplement government financial aid and should not be seen as an alternative to government financial support.

Supporting documents required:

1. If you have applied for TSFS in the current academic year, information from your TSFS application will be used to facilitate assessment of this ufa application.
2. If you have not applied for TSFS in the current academic year, you are required to complete a supplementary information sheet detailing the financial circumstances of your families. The information given will be used to facilitate assessment of your applications for UFA. Such forms are obtainable from the Centre of Development and Resources for Students (CEDARS) or can be downloaded from <http://cedars.hku.hk>
