Lady Ho Tung Hall
Round II Hall Admission 2024-25
For unsuccessful candidates

Aug 19, 2024

Dear Student,

Thank you for participating in the RII admissions process for Lady Ho Tung Hall. Unfortunately, we were unable to offer you a space in this round due to keen competition.

To be eligible for consideration, applicants were required to meet the following criteria:

- Must submit online application through HKU portal to the Hall.
- Must complete interview.
- Must be an eligible UGC-funded student for the 2024-25 academic year.
- Must have no prior hall experience (for HKU year 2 and above).
- Must have a GPA of 2.0 or above (for HKU year 2 and above).
- No more than 5% P-1 students may be admitted.

Admissions score ranking was determined by need/distance and RII interview performance.

Unsuccessful candidates have two options and may choose one or both options:

Option 1. Appeals round: Appeals round is for residents who have met all the requirements listed above. An Appeals candidate may have special circumstances that require them to live in the hall. Such issues may be related to, but not limited to, family, finances, health, or housing. An Appeals candidate must apply via the HKU portal by 22 AUG 4PM and must clearly state their special circumstances in the appeals application.

Login to your HKU Portal (<https://hkuportal.hku.hk>) → select “SIS Menu” → select “On-line application” → select “Application for Resident Hall” → select “Request for Appeal”

Option 2. Central Clearing House (CCH): CCH applicants must meet all the requirements above but may have prior hall experience. Unsuccessful applicants may apply to LHTH or other Halls through 1) “Hall/College Vacancies Available for Application” on CEDARS website.

Thank you for working with us throughout the process. Thank you for your interest in Lady Ho Tung Hall. For inquiries please email the Lady Ho Tung Hall Office (lhthall@hku.hk)

Sincerely,
