

Bachelor of Journalism

新聞學學士

The Bachelor of Journalism programme is a communication-focused, double-major degree curriculum for the digital age. Students combine multimedia skills and critical thinking with their chosen complementary major, creating a personalised degree. The diverse faculty and student body ensure a lively learning environment that fuels curiosity.

Along with internship and exchange opportunities, the programme's focus is on hands-on, real-world learning. By the end of the four-year curriculum, graduates excel in producing accurate and thoroughly-researched written pieces, crafting compelling video, and creating impactful, data-driven online journalism.

Curriculum Structure

Common Core Courses	36 Credits
Language Courses	12 Credits
Artificial Intelligence Literacy Courses	6 Credits
Major in Journalism	72 Credits
JMSC Internship	12 Credits
Global Citizenship	12 Credits
Second Major and free electives	90 Credits
Total	240 Credits